Augustine, a Luxury Collection Hotel, Prague

Located in the historic heart of Prague's Lesser Town (Malá Strana), Augustine, a Luxury Collection Hotel is a five-star sanctuary steeped in history, elegance, and monastic calm. Part of Marriott's prestigious Luxury Collection, this hotel offers an unforgettable blend of heritage, refinement, and world-class hospitality—perfect for travelers seeking both authenticity and luxury.

Historical Setting: A Monastery Turned Masterpiece

What sets Augustine apart is its unique location within a 13th-century Augustine monastery, parts of which are still inhabited by practicing monks. The hotel complex integrates seven historic buildings, including the St. Thomas Monastery, creating an atmosphere that is deeply tranquil, spiritual, and architecturally magnificent.

Guests will find cloistered courtyards, frescoed ceilings, and even rooms that overlook the monastery's private chapel and gardens. You're not just staying in Prague—you're living its history.

Rooms & Suites: Quiet Luxury With Czech Character

- Room Types:

- Deluxe Rooms
- Premium Garden View Rooms
- Junior Suites
- Signature Suites (incl. Fresco Suite and Tower Suite)

The rooms are designed with a monastic aesthetic: understated yet luxurious, with vaulted ceilings, arched windows, and custom-made Czech furnishings. Bathrooms are spacious, with heated floors, marble finishings, and deep soaking tubs. High-end touches like Etro toiletries, plush bedding, and state-of-the-art soundproofing ensure restful comfort.

The Tower Suite, a standout feature, is set over three floors in a former observatory, offering panoramic views of Prague Castle and the Vltava River.

Dining: Refined Local Flavors & Rare Beers

• Augustine Restaurant

Overseen by Executive Chef Martin Boháček, the restaurant combines modern Czech cuisine with international elegance. Expect seasonal menus with dishes like duck confit, beef sirloin in creamy dill sauce, and forest mushroom risotto. Ingredients are sourced from local farms and crafted with minimal fuss for maximum flavor.

• Refectory Bar 1887

Set in a dramatic vaulted hall with original frescoes, the bar serves craft cocktails alongside a rare treat: St. Thomas Beer, brewed using a secret recipe by the resident monks. It's the only place in the world you can taste it.

---

Wellness & Amenities

- Spa: A boutique wellness suite offering massages, facials, and Ayurvedic treatments.
  - Fitness Room: 24-hour access with Technogym equipment.
  - Secret Garden: A private cloister garden ideal for peaceful reading or al fresco tea.
  - Chauffeur Service: Mercedes-Benz transfers available.
  - Concierge: Expert staff ready to arrange private castle tours, opera tickets, or riverside dining.

Location: Quiet Yet Central

- 5-minute walk to Charles Bridge
- 10-minute walk to Prague Castle

- Tucked away from tourist noise but within walking distance of major landmarks

You're in one of the most picturesque parts of Prague, surrounded by cobblestone streets, baroque churches, and charming cafés.

Guest Experience & Ratings

Average Guest Rating: ★★★★★ (4.8/5)

Pros:

- Unique historical ambiance
- Impeccable service and concierge
- Spacious, quiet rooms
- Exclusive beer and gourmet dining
- Ideal location for romantic or cultural trips

Cons:

- Higher price point than nearby luxury hotels
  - Not ideal for those seeking nightlife or ultra-modern interiors

Final Verdict

Augustine, a Luxury Collection Hotel is not just a hotel—it's an experience. Perfect for honeymooners, cultural travelers, and luxury seekers, it offers a tranquil oasis in one of Europe's most vibrant cities. Its fusion of historical reverence and contemporary comfort makes it a standout property not just in Prague, but across Central Europe.

Aria Hotel Prague

Aria Hotel Prague is a 5-star boutique hotel that strikes a perfect chord between luxury, culture, and charm. Nestled in the heart of Malá Strana, just beneath Prague Castle and a short walk from Charles Bridge, this hotel is an architectural and artistic gem. Every element of Aria is infused with musical inspiration, making it one of the most unique luxury stays in Prague.

Concept & Theme: A Tribute to Music

This isn't just a luxury hotel—it's a celebration of musical heritage. From classical to contemporary, every floor is themed after a musical genre, and rooms are named after iconic composers and performers such as Dvořák, Beethoven, Elvis, and Billie Holiday.

Key Highlights:

- Private music library with a musicologist on staff
- In-room music system with curated playlists
- Personalized touches that immerse guests in music history

The atmosphere is elegant but relaxed, catering to guests who appreciate both refined aesthetics and cultural depth.

Rooms & Suites: Intimate Luxury with a Melody

• Room Categories:

- Deluxe Rooms
- Junior Suites
- Signature Luxury Suites (some with castle views)

All rooms are individually styled, featuring artistic headboards, richly patterned fabrics, custom artwork, and state-of-the-art entertainment systems. The décor blends modern comfort with old-world elegance.

Bathrooms are marble-appointed, many with bathtubs and heated floors, and all stocked with Molton Brown toiletries. The Signature Suites offer terraces overlooking the Vrtba Garden or Prague rooftops.

Dining: Refined Cuisine with a View

• CODA Restaurant

Helmed by Executive Chef David Šašek, CODA is one of Prague's finest gourmet destinations. The menu combines Czech tradition with modern European flair, using local ingredients to create bold, seasonal dishes.

Signature items include:

- Roasted duck with red cabbage and dumplings
- Lobster bisque with cognac cream
- Foie gras with caramelized pear and brioche

In summer, dine on the rooftop terrace, with sweeping views of the Old Town, Castle, and St. Nicholas Church.

Exclusive Amenities & Services

Location: A Cultural Heartbeat

- 3-minute walk to Charles Bridge
- 10-minute walk to Prague Castle
- Surrounded by embassies, art galleries, and historic cafés

Set on Tržiště Street, a quiet cobbled lane in Malá Strana, Aria offers both privacy and proximity to the city's most treasured landmarks.

Guest Experience & Ratings

Average Guest Rating: ★★★★★ (4.9/5)

Pros:

- Unique musical atmosphere and décor
- Personalized service with cultural concierge
- Exceptional rooftop dining
- Quiet location near main attractions
- Access to private garden (rare in Prague)

Cons:

- Boutique size means limited availability
  - Not ideal for large groups or families with many children

Final Verdict

Aria Hotel Prague is a luxury retreat for the cultured traveler—perfect for couples, solo adventurers, and anyone seeking a refined, romantic, and intellectually stimulating stay. Its musical theme is more than a gimmick; it's a heartfelt tribute that enhances every moment of your visit.

Whether you're attending an opera, exploring Prague Castle, or enjoying a glass of wine on the rooftop terrace, Aria strikes all the right notes.

Design & Concept: Minimalist Sophistication with a Soul

From its polished stone façade to its curated art collection, The Emblem delivers modern aesthetics with warm, personal touches. Interiors blend soft grey tones, American walnut, brushed brass, and custom Czech artwork.

The concept goes beyond luxury—it's about connection, wellness, and cultural experience. With a social lounge instead of a traditional lobby, a rooftop spa, and a community-focused approach, this hotel redefines what a central city hotel can be.

Location: Unmatched Urban Access

- 1-minute walk to Old Town Square
- 5 minutes to Charles Bridge and the Jewish Quarter
- Surrounded by cafes, art galleries, and independent boutiques

You couldn't be more central. Yet, thanks to soundproofing and thoughtful design, the hotel remains an oasis of calm.

Rooms & Suites: Modern Comfort, Thoughtful Details

• Room Categories:

- Standard Rooms
- Deluxe King & Twin Rooms
- Junior Suites
- Signature Suite & Terrace Suite

Rooms are streamlined and high-tech, featuring:

- Hypoallergenic bedding
- Smart climate control
- Marble bathrooms with walk-in showers
- USB charging ports and high-speed Wi-Fi

Suites offer private terraces with views of Prague Castle, art-deco soaking tubs, and bespoke furniture. All rooms showcase local art and boutique design details, creating a vibe that's modern but not sterile.

Rooftop Wellness: M Spa & Terrace

One of the Emblem's defining features is its exclusive rooftop spa, offering panoramic views of Prague.

M Spa Includes:

- Jacuzzi on the rooftop terrace
- Steam room, sauna, and Kneipp path
- Private wellness suite for couples' treatments
- Fitness center with Technogym equipment
- Facial and body treatments using premium organic products

This is urban wellness at its most refined, perfect after a day exploring Prague's cobbled streets.

Dining: Contemporary Local Flavors

• George Prime Steak

The hotel's in-house restaurant is one of the top modern American steakhouses in Europe, with a strong focus on quality beef and local ingredients.

Highlights include:

- USDA Prime Ribeye and Filet Mignon
- Czech trout with lemon beurre blanc
- Extensive wine cellar and expertly crafted cocktails

It's also a favorite among locals, making it a great place to mingle with Prague's creative crowd.

Social Spaces & Guest Perks

- The M Lounge: A members-style communal space with books, games, espresso bar, and events
- Private cinema room
- Art concierge for gallery tours and local exhibits
- Pet-friendly rooms
- Airport transfers and valet service

The hotel is geared toward independent travelers, digital nomads, couples, and creatives looking for a deeper experience of Prague.

Guest Experience & Ratings

Average Guest Rating: ★★★★★ (4.8/5)

Pros:

- Ultra-central location with quiet, calm interiors
- Clean, modern aesthetic
- Rooftop wellness and hot tub with views
- Exceptional steakhouse and cocktail bar
- Great for creative professionals and couples

Cons:

- Boutique size means fewer “grand” hotel amenities
- Some rooms have compact layouts
- Not ideal for families or traditional-luxury seekers

Final Verdict

The Emblem Hotel is Prague’s answer to the modern luxury traveler—urban, intimate, and artfully curated. With its focus on wellness, design, and cultural immersion, it stands out from the city’s traditional five-star options.

If you’re looking for a stylish, intelligent base for discovering Prague with all the comfort of a top-tier hotel but the character of a private residence, The Emblem is a perfect choice.

Where to Stay in Prague: Best Areas & Luxury Hotels

Prague is a city of timeless beauty, where Gothic cathedrals, Baroque palaces, and cobbled streets meet a thriving cultural scene and modern luxury. Whether you're seeking panoramic castle views, riverside serenity, or a stylish urban hideaway, choosing the right area to stay is key to elevating your visit.

In this guide, we explore the best neighborhoods in Prague for luxury travelers, along with curated recommendations for top-tier hotels in each district.

□ 1. Malá Strana (Lesser Town) – For Romantic, Old-World Charm

Why stay here:

Nestled below Prague Castle and across the river from Old Town, Malá Strana is a quiet, cobblestone-lined neighborhood filled with palaces, gardens, and historic townhouses. It's perfect for those who want a romantic, tranquil stay with easy access to major landmarks.

Top Picks:

- Augustine, a Luxury Collection Hotel – A 13th-century monastery turned luxury retreat, ideal for serenity and spiritual ambiance.
  - Aria Hotel Prague – Music-themed boutique luxury with rooftop dining and private access to Vrtba Garden.
  - The Alchemist Grand Hotel and Spa – Lavish interiors and decadent spa facilities just steps from Charles Bridge.

□ 2. Staré Město (Old Town) – For First-Time Visitors & Historic Access

Why stay here:

The heart of Prague's tourist scene, Old Town is lively, central, and filled with historic sights like the Astronomical Clock, Old Town Square, and Charles Bridge. It's ideal for travelers wanting to walk everywhere and soak in the city's energy.

Top Picks:

- Hotel Paris Prague – A classic Art Nouveau masterpiece near the Powder Tower.
  - The Emblem Hotel – Sleek, design-forward luxury just off Old Town Square, with a rooftop spa.
  - Four Seasons Hotel Prague – Ultimate riverside elegance with castle views and impeccable service.

□ 3. Josefov (Jewish Quarter) – For Boutique Stays & Cultural Depth

Why stay here:

Josefov is a historic and compact area known for its synagogues, the Jewish Museum, and high-end boutiques. It blends intellectual richness with luxury and is a quieter alternative to the tourist-heavy Old Town.

Top Picks:

- The Emblem Hotel – Ideal for culture lovers who want modern amenities and walkable access.
  - Maximilian Hotel – A boutique property with modern design and personalized touches.

□ 4. Nové Město (New Town) – For Shopping, Dining, and Nightlife

Why stay here:

Centered around Wenceslas Square, this vibrant area is filled with shops, cafes, nightlife, and galleries. It's well-connected by public transport and offers a more dynamic urban feel.

Top Picks:

- Michelangelo Grand Hotel – Classic modern comfort near National Museum and metro links.
  - Radisson Blu Hotel Prague – Stylish and contemporary, great for business or upscale leisure.

□ 5. Hradčany (Castle District) – For Views, Luxury, and Solitude

Why stay here:

Home to Prague Castle, this district offers breathtaking views, quiet evenings, and proximity to historic landmarks like St. Vitus Cathedral and Golden Lane. It's slightly uphill but feels exclusive and grand.

Top Picks:

- Golden Well Hotel – An intimate luxury stay with direct castle access and Michelin-level dining.

- Questenberk Hotel – Set in a former monastery with views over Petřín Hill and the city.

✦✦Final Tips

- Book early: Top luxury properties in Prague can sell out quickly, especially in spring and around Christmas.
  - Consider airport transfers: Most 5-star hotels offer private car service or concierge-arranged taxis.
  - Look for terrace views: Prague's rooftops, castle, and river provide exceptional scenery worth the premium.

  - Play a round at the Royal Golf Club Mariánské Lázně

□ 3. Mikulov – Wine Country in South Moravia

Travel Time: 2.5–3 hours by car

Why Go: Rolling vineyards, baroque castles, and top-tier Moravian wines.

Top Stay:

- Hotel Volarik Mikulov – A modern luxury hotel with a rooftop infinity pool, located in the heart of wine country.

What to Do:

- Visit Mikulov Castle and climb Holy Hill for views
  - Book a private wine tasting at a family-owned cellar
  - Cycle or drive through the Pálava hills and UNESCO Lednice-Valtice complex

□ 4. Chateau Herálec – Castle Luxury in the Countryside

Travel Time: 1.5 hours by car

Why Go: A true castle stay with a world-class spa in the tranquil Vysočina Highlands.

Top Stay:

- Chateau Herálec Boutique Hotel & Spa – 13th-century Renaissance castle turned 5-star boutique hotel, featuring an indoor pool, L'Occitane spa, and gourmet cuisine.

What to Do:

- Indulge in spa treatments and gourmet menus
  - Walk or bike in the surrounding countryside
  - Take a private helicopter tour (available via the hotel)

□ 5. Český Krumlov – Romantic Riverside Fairytale

Travel Time: 2.5–3 hours by car

Why Go: UNESCO-listed town with a storybook medieval center.

Top Stay:

- Hotel Růže – A former Jesuit college turned historic hotel, located near the castle.

What to Do:

- Explore Český Krumlov Castle and its gardens
  - Paddle the Vltava River or join a photography walk
  - Dine riverside at one of the town's Michelin-recommended restaurants

□ 6. Liblice – A Baroque Palace Experience

Travel Time: 45 minutes from Prague

Why Go: Historic palace getaway ideal for spa lovers who want to stay closer to the city.

Top Stay:

What to Pack for a 5-Star Hotel Stay in Czechia

Staying at a luxury hotel in Czechia—whether it's a spa resort in Karlovy Vary, a design-forward property in Prague, or a castle hideaway in the countryside—calls for packing that balances comfort, elegance, and versatility. This guide outlines everything you need to bring for a flawless five-star stay, with tips tailored to Czechia's seasons, cultural norms, and hotel expectations.

☐ Essential Packing Checklist

☐ Clothing: Daytime Essentials

- Smart casual outfits for daytime exploring (e.g. tailored jeans or trousers, linen shirts, elegant tops)
- Comfortable walking shoes – cobblestones are everywhere, even in luxury neighborhoods
- Light jacket or trench coat – essential even in warmer months due to evening chills
- Scarf or shawl – versatile for both weather changes and covering shoulders in historic sites

☐ Evening & Dining Attire

- Chic evening wear – many 5-star hotels have upscale restaurants or cocktail bars
- Blazer or formal jacket for men
- Elegant dress or blouse & skirt for women
- Polished footwear – loafers, leather boots, or heels (pack heel guards if walking in Old Town!)

☐ Loungewear & Spa Clothing

- Swimsuit – even city hotels often have pools or rooftop spas
- Lightweight robe (most luxury hotels provide one, but bring your own for spa hopping)
- Flip-flops or spa sandals
- Gymwear – if your hotel has a fitness suite

☐ Seasonal Adjustments

☐ Winter (Nov–Feb)

- Wool coat or parka
- Thermal base layers
- Leather gloves & warm hat
- Waterproof boots with grip

☐ Spring/Autumn (Mar–May / Sept–Oct)

- Layered outfits (sweater + trench)
- Umbrella or foldable raincoat
- Neutral-toned scarf for style and warmth

☐ Summer (Jun–Aug)

- Breathable fabrics (linen, cotton)
  - Sunglasses and sunhat
  - Light blazer or cardigan for evenings
  - Summer dress or polo for elegant casual

☐ Accessories & Gadgets

- Universal travel adapter (Czechia uses EU plug, Type E, 230V)
  - Portable phone charger
  - Smartphone with offline maps (e.g. Google Maps)
  - Luxury skincare and grooming kits
  - Camera (or phone with good lens—Prague is photogenic at every angle)

☐ Optional But Useful Extras

- Collapsible tote bag – useful for spa visits, shopping, or extra layers
  - Reusable water bottle – tap water is safe to drink
  - Local SIM card or eSIM for extended stays
  - Travel steamer – for wrinkle-free formalwear

☐ ☐ Czech-Specific Travel Tips

- Dress standards are elevated in Czechia – locals value neat, tasteful dressing even when casual.
  - Spa hotels often require pre-booked treatments, so bring your calendar or travel itinerary for scheduling.
  - Some chateaux or countryside hotels may host formal dinners or cultural evenings—bring one outfit that fits the occasion.

☐ Luxury Travel Tip

If you're arriving from abroad, check whether your hotel offers:

- Chauffeur service from the airport
- Luggage forwarding
- Garment pressing or dry cleaning on arrival

These are standard in most five-star properties in Prague, Karlovy Vary, and Brno.

□ Final Thoughts

Packing for a five-star hotel in Czechia means preparing for comfort and refinement. Bring layers, smart outfits for dinner, stylish-yet-functional shoes, and don't forget your spa essentials—Czechia's wellness culture is world-class.

  - The Emblem Hotel – For modern design and rooftop spa luxury
  - Augustine, a Luxury Collection Hotel – For a serene, monastery-turned-hotel experience in Lesser Town

□ Day 1: Royal Prague & Riverfront Dining

Morning

- Private Castle District Tour
Begin with a private guide to explore Prague Castle, St. Vitus Cathedral, and Golden Lane—without the crowds. Arrange through your hotel concierge for VIP access options.

- Coffee Break at Lobkowitz Palace Café
Enjoy views over the Vltava and a glass of local sparkling wine.

Afternoon

- Lunch at Kuchyň (overlooking the castle courtyard) – rustic Czech cuisine in a refined setting.
- Stroll down to Malá Strana, visiting Wallenstein Garden and hidden art galleries.

Evening

- Pre-dinner cocktails at Augustine's Refectory Bar – taste the exclusive St. Thomas beer.
  - Dinner at Bellevue Restaurant – fine dining with panoramic river and castle views.
  - Optional: Private chauffeur back to your hotel for a scenic nighttime drive.

☐ Day 2: Old Town, Art, and Indulgence

Morning

- Breakfast at your hotel, followed by a guided architecture walk through Old Town, Jewish Quarter, and Wenceslas Square.
- Stop at The Municipal House for a tour or coffee in the Art Nouveau café.

Afternoon

- Lunch at CODA (Aria Hotel) – enjoy gourmet fare with rooftop views over Lesser Town.
- Afternoon spa session at AVA Spa (Four Seasons) or M Spa (The Emblem) – book a Czech herbal massage or signature facial.

Evening

- Opera or Classical Performance at Estates Theatre – historic venue where Mozart premiered Don Giovanni.
  - Late dinner at La Degustation Bohême Bourgeoise – Michelin-starred modern Czech tasting menu (reservation essential).

☐ Day 3: Boutique Shopping, River Cruise & Farewell

Morning

- Start with a private shopping experience in Pařížská Street (Prague's luxury shopping district).
  - Brands: Cartier, Hermès, Dior, Czech designer boutiques
- Visit Mucha Museum or enjoy a glass of champagne at Café Imperial—an Art Deco classic.

Afternoon

- Lunch at Field Restaurant – relaxed Michelin-starred spot with a minimalist Nordic feel.
- Afternoon river cruise – book a private boat or vintage wooden launch, complete with Prosecco and guide.

Evening

- Sunset drinks at Terasa U Prince – a rooftop bar with iconic city views.
- Dinner at George Prime Steak (The Emblem) – top-quality USDA cuts and fine wines to end in style.

□ Tips for a Seamless Luxury Experience

- Use your hotel concierge for bookings, priority tickets, and restaurant reservations.
  - Arrange airport transfers in advance—many luxury hotels offer private BMW or Mercedes service.
  - Spa treatments, fine dining, and rooftop bars book out early—plan at least a week ahead.
  - Tipping: 10%–15% is standard in restaurants; round up for drivers and bell staff.

✦ Final Thought

Prague is more than a destination—it's an experience steeped in music, architecture, fine taste, and timeless atmosphere. With just three days, you can enjoy its best sights without rushing, all while indulging in world-class luxury and authentic charm.

Start your stay by booking one of Prague's top luxury hotels now on ResortPoppy.com.

Terms and Conditions

Last updated: November 15, 2024

Welcome to ResortPoppy.com. By accessing and using this website, you agree to be bound by the following Terms and Conditions. Please read them carefully. If you do not agree with any part of these terms, please do not use the website.

□ 1. Overview

ResortPoppy.com is a hotel comparison website offering curated information about luxury hotels and travel experiences in the Czech Republic. We do not own or operate any hotels or booking platforms directly.

By using this site, you agree to:

- Use the website only for lawful purposes
- Be bound by these terms and any applicable laws or regulations
- Accept that content and affiliate links are subject to change without notice

☐ 2. Affiliate Relationships

ResortPoppy.com earns revenue through affiliate partnerships with third-party booking platforms (such as Booking.com, Hotels.com, Travelpayouts, etc.).

When you click a booking link:

- You are redirected to an external booking site.
- We may receive a commission if you complete a reservation (at no additional cost to you).
- Your interaction with that third-party site is governed by their terms and privacy policies, not ours.

We are not responsible for:

- The accuracy of prices shown on third-party sites
  - Reservation issues, cancellations, or refund policies
  - Hotel availability or guest experience

☐ 3. Content Accuracy

We strive to ensure all hotel listings, guides, and reviews are up to date and accurate. However, we do not guarantee that all information is error-free or current at all times.

All content is provided for informational purposes only and should not be considered professional travel, legal, or financial advice.

We reserve the right to:

- Modify or update content without notice
  - Remove or change featured hotels or destinations

☐ ☐ 4. Intellectual Property

Unless otherwise stated, all content on ResortPoppy.com—including text, logos, layout, and design—is the intellectual property of ResortPoppy.com or used under license. You may not:

- Reproduce, republish, or redistribute site content without permission
  - Use our content for commercial purposes without express consent

☐ 5. Privacy and Cookies

By using our site, you consent to our Privacy & Cookie Policy, which explains how we collect, use, and protect your personal data.

---

! 6. Limitations of Liability

To the fullest extent permitted by law, ResortPoppy.com is not liable for:

- Errors or omissions in content
- Losses or damages arising from use of this website
- Technical issues beyond our control (e.g., website downtime, third-party booking failures)
- Third-party advertisements or sponsored content

You agree to use this website at your own risk.

☐ 7. User Submissions and Contact

If you submit content (e.g., hotel suggestions, reviews, feedback), you grant us the right to use, publish, or modify that content without royalty or obligation.

For inquiries, email us at support@resortpoppy.com.

☐ 8. Governing Law

These terms are governed by the laws of the Czech Republic. Any disputes arising under these terms shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts of Karlovy Vary, Czech Republic.

☐ 9. Changes to These Terms

We may update these Terms and Conditions from time to time. Updated versions will be posted on this page with the effective date. Your continued use of the site constitutes acceptance of the revised terms.

---
